

The Daily Courant.

Friday, January 4. 1723.

London, January 4.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France.

Moscow, November 30.

PRINCE Menzikoff is ordered to make all the Search possible for discovering the Authors of the Remonstrances made concerning the Succession; accordingly he lately summoned a certain Count to appear before him, who is thought to be Head of the Malecontents; and being examined in several Points, he would give no other Answer than that which he had already given to the Regency some time ago, viz. That what he had done, was by Way of Supplication, not of Opposition; mean time, 'tis said, that three Persons have lately been Beheaded in Prison for High-Treason, so that there remains now only 12, who are to wait for their Sentence till the Czar's Arrival. Great Quantities of Stores and Provisions are laying up in the Magazines at Astracan, for the Maintenance of the Troops in Quarters thereabouts, and also to supply the Garrisons of Derbent, and other conquered Places.

Turin, Dec. 26. On the 20th Instant, the Court went into deep Mourning for nine Months, unless the Birth of a young Prince, which is very much wished for, should cause any Alteration. The Court was very numerous. The Prince and Princess of Piedmont, also the two Princesses of Carignan, went in Ceremony to condole with her Majesty for the Death of the Dutchess of Orleans. Madame Royale is often indisposed of late; she has now a great Cold, and because of her Age, the Physicians are very apprehensive of her Death. The Advices from Chambery, the Capital Town of Savoy, tell us, that last Week a Magazine of Goods took Fire, which burnt down several Houses before it was put out.

Paris, Jan. 5. The new Regulations of Paper Effects that were expected to be made at the Beginning of this Year, not yet appearing, 'tis presumed they will remain just as they are till after the King's Majority. --- The Abbé Dangeau, Sub-Dean of the French Academy, died on New-Year's Day, after a long Fit of Sickness, aged 82 Years. By his Death becomes vacant the Abbey of Arnon, at Crequi in Valois; the Abbey of Fontaine at Amiens; he had also another of 1200 Livres a Year, which was disposed of by his Consent last Year to the Abbé Alarès. He has left by Will 300 Livres Pension to each of his Servants. --- Publication has been made by Order of Council, to proceed by Way of Sale and publick Auction, at M. Fagon's House, one of the Commissaries appointed by the King for the Disposal of divers Seats, Houses, Lordships, Lands, &c. belonging to Mademoiselle Chamont, to M. le Blanc, and other rich Mississippians who refuse to comply with their Taxes. --- Beside the Retirement intended to be made of Pensions, 'tis said there will also be suppressed several Survivorships, Brevets in Reversion upon Governments, General Lieutenancies, Lieutenancies of the King, and other Employments. --- In hopes that the Actions will soon be delivered to the Proprietors, Certificates are risen to 1500 Livres, and the Liquidations are fallen to 22.

Verfailles, Jan. 8. On the 1st Instant, the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans, the Duke of Chartres, the Princes and Princesses of the Blood, waited upon the King to wish him a happy New-Year. Afterwards, the Provost of the City, and the Eschevins, paid their Respects to his Majesty, being introduced by the Marquess de Dreux, Grand Master of the Ceremonies. The same Day, being the Festival of the Circumcision, the King, accompanied by the Duke of Orleans, Duke of Chartres, Duke of Bourbon, Count of Charolois, Prince of Conti, Count of Toulouse, preceded by the Knights, Commanders, and Officers of the Order of the Holy Ghost, went to the Chapel at the Castle, where his Majesty heard high Mass celebrated pontifically by the Bishop of Metz, Prelate Commander of the Order. The King, before whom marched the two Mace-bearers of the Chamber, carrying their Maces, wore a long Cloak of Violet Colour, and upon that the Collar of the Order; the Knights and Officers wore long Mourning Cloaks, the first had on the Collar, and the Prelates-Commanders their Purple Ornament and Rocket. In the Afternoon his Majesty heard Vespers. On the 6th Instant, M. de Rolinville, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Lorraine, had his first publick Audience of the King to pay his Compliments of Condolence to his Majesty on the Death of the late Dutchess Dowager of Orleans, being introduced by M. de Remond, Introducer of Ambassadors, who had been to receive him in the King's Coach, and conducted him from his Hotel in Paris. He had Audience afterwards of the Duke of Orleans, being conducted by the same Introducer; and having been treated by his Majesty's Officers, was re-conducted in the same Coach with the usual Ceremonies.

Paris, Jan. 9. This Court very well approves of the Abbé Tanfin's Proceedings at that of Rome, during the Pope's Sickness, which 'tis said, increases daily. --- The King of Sardinia fortifying his Frontier Places, the like is doing on our Side towards Savoy, and M. le Chevalier de Matheux, Brigadier in the King's Army, and Governour of Valance, came hither some Days past to acquaint the Court of the Condition of the fortified Places, which are ordered to be repaired with all possible Diligence, especially Briançon, which has occasioned the holding of some Councils, and Brigadier Matheux is ordered to return to his Post in Dauphiné. On the 8th Instant in the Morning, the 1st Troop of Musketeers appeared under Arms on Horseback at the Key near the Guard Meuble; the Duke of Orleans came thither a quarter of an Hour afterwards and reviewed them; after which he appointed seven Sub-Officers to that Corps. --- It is believed, that after the King's Majority, the Cardinal du Bois will be continued in his Post of Prime Minister. --- Two Arrêts of Council were published this Week. The 1st enjoins, that from the Day of its Publication all Merchandise and other Effects belonging to the late infected Places shall be freely admitted into all the Cities of the Kingdom, without the Proprietors or Carriers being obliged obliged to put their Marks on the Bales or Packs which contain the said Effects, as was required by former Arrêts: With respect to those of Marseilles, the Directions must be observed which are already prescribed by M. le Bailly de Langres. The 2d requires that the Liquidations which are in the Offices of Account at Paris and not withdrawn before the 10th Instant, shall be cancelled; and that on the 10th of February next, the Subdelegates of the Intendants of the Provinces shall transmit hither such Liquidations as are not withdrawn by the Proprietors, in order to their being likewise cancelled and annulled. It is generally discomfited, that two new Directors of the Finances will be created; one in favour of M. Fagon, and the other for M. Pellicier des Forts. The Actions are at 1800 Livres, and the Liquidations at 22 Livres 10 Sols.

Supposed to be lost between the Three

Cups in Broad-Street and the Poultry Church, on the 17th of December last, in the Evening, two Pieces of Broad Lace, containing Six Yards and Three Quarters a Piece. Whoever brings them to Mr. Cooper's, in Scolding Alley in the Poultry, shall have Five Guineas Reward. N.B. A Coach, N° 43, took two Gentlemen up at the King's Arms in Leadenhall-Street, and set them down at the Three Cups in Broad-Street, so don't know but they were left in the Coach.

A Person having lost his Dog in Hammer-

Smith, on Friday the 28th of December last, who whoever shall bring it to Mr. Du Pin in White-Hart-Court in Castle-Street near the Music, shall have one Guinea Reward. The Dog is about 18 Months old: His Tail is cut within three Inches from his Body, his Ears are cut half hanging down a little, he is of a Middle-Size, his Hair Black mix'd with some White, and in some Places the White Hair is pretty thick, which makes him look speckled, especially about his Feet: At the Time when the Dog was lost he had a large Leather Collar, with a great Iron Ring, and a great Ring of Silver, by which a long Piece of Line turned about his Neck. N.B. If any Person gives Notice that they know any one that detains the Dog, they shall have Half a Guinea Reward. N.B. The Dog is of no Use to any Person whatsoever.
